To,
The Recruiting Manager,
Subject: Cover Letter

Hello,

   I am excited to apply at your esteemed organization, where my expertise in AI-driven security, cloud infrastructure, and large-scale automation aligns with your team's mission. At AWS, I have managed 1,300+ Linux CVEs, led AI-powered security automation, and built privacy-enhanced cloud security solutions, directly contributing to infrastructure security and risk mitigation at scale. I thrive in environments that challenge me to think deeply, adapt quickly, and bridge disciplines to create innovative solutions.

➜ Why I Am a Strong Fit for This Role—

   → 1. Cloud & Infrastructure Security: Experience deploying AI models on AWS Lambda, API Gateway, S3, and building real-time security monitoring with CloudWatch.
   → 2. Security & Vulnerability Management: Specialized in Linux security, threat detection, and FIPS-compliant vulnerability patching for Amazon Linux.
   → 3. AI & ML-Driven Security: Designed AI-based CVE impact analysis algorithms, developed ML-powered automation, and published peer-reviewed research in AI, ML, and NLP (39 citations, IEEE & ACL).
   → 4. Strong Theoretical & Practical Foundation: Expertise in graph algorithms, deep learning, and statistical modeling, with hands-on work in Python (TensorFlow, PyTorch), Rust (for AI applications), and SQL.

➜ Why This Role Aligns With My Goals—

   → I tackle engineering challenges with the same curiosity that drives my pursuits. Debate, coding, and quizzing sharpen my pattern recognition, while art, sports, and music refine adaptability and structure-key to scalable AI and security automation. This interdisciplinary mindset fuels innovative problem-solving in complex systems.
   → I am deeply passionate about scalable, ethical, and high-impact AI-driven solutions and believe my applied research, software engineering, and security expertise make me an ideal fit for this role. Products thrive on curiosity, interdisciplinary thinking, and a willingness to challenge the status quo-values that I have embraced throughout my career and personal pursuits.

   I would love the opportunity to discuss how my skills can contribute to your Company's technical initiatives. Please let me know a convenient time to connect.

Best regards,
